

ADDENDA AND ERRATA

AUTHOR'S NOTE: The legislature and secretary of state have been active since this law review article was published, and they have addressed virtually all of the concerns that I raised. I sincerely thank the South Texas Law Review for publishing such an atypical article and fostering interest in these state symbols.

More information on this topic can be found in The Texas State Seal, a pamphlet available from the office of the secretary of state, and from the entries "Flags of Texas," "Flags of the Texas Revolution," and "Seals of Texas," which appear in the Texas State Historical Association's The New Handbook of Texas.

Finally, I encourage everyone interested in flags and seals to join the North American Vexillological Association (NAVA), which is dedicated to the scientific and scholarly study of flags and their history and symbolism. For more information, write to NAVA, 1977 North Olden Avenue Extension, PMB 225, Trenton, New Jersey 08618-2193 USA.

Concurrent Resolution 9 of the 71st Legislature, Regular Session, recognized Dr. Charles B. Stewart as the designer of the Lone Star Flag;

and

WHEREAS, That same concurrent resolution acknowledged Lorenzo de Zavala, William B. Scates, Thomas Barnett, Sterling C. Robertson, Thomas J. Gazley, and Richard Ellis as the members of the committee that approved the Lone Star Flag design; and

WHEREAS, Subsequent historical research has revealed that the actual designer of the Lone Star Flag is unknown; and

WHEREAS, That same research has revealed that the six listed committee members were appointed in March 1836 by the General Convention at Washington-on-the-Brazos to design a national flag for the newly independent Republic of Texas, but that the General Convention apparently never adopted a national flag; and

WHEREAS, Senator William H. Wharton, who had originated Texas' first national flag, known as David G. Burnet's Flag, introduced a bill in the Texas Senate on December 28, 1838, containing the design for the Lone Star Flag; and

WHEREAS, Senator Wharton's bill was referred to a committee consisting of Senator Oliver Jones and two other senators whose identities are unknown, and that committee reported a substitute bill containing Senator Wharton's design; the legislation was passed by the Congress of the Republic of Texas on January 21, 1839, and approved by President Mirabeau B. Lamar on January 25, 1839; and remains unchanged to this day; and

WHEREAS, The legislature desires to honor the Texans instrumental in adopting the Lone Star Flag and to correct the unintentional historical errors in House Concurrent Resolution 9 of the 71st Legislature, Regular Session; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 72nd Legislature of the State of Texas, Fourth Called Session, recognize Senator William H. Wharton and Senator Oliver Jones for their efforts in adopting this abiding symbol of our state's unity.

Johnson* and United States v. Eichman.^{91.5} The court of criminal appeals refused to grant the State's petition for discretionary review, thus clearing the way for an appeal to the Supreme Court. In October 1992 the Supreme Court denied the State's petition for writ of certiorari, allowing the judgment of the El Paso Court of Appeals to stand.^{91.75} The Supreme Court's refusal to consider the Jimenez case appears to settle the flag-desecration issue once and for all.
